IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

THE CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776
The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

[illegible]

the Islands are in the possession of France in a very few weeks. That the men of property in the Islands have been for some time shipping off their valuable effects to England, and ordering insurances to be made on their estates; and that the price of provisions has risen to an enormous height, corn selling at 18s. per bushel, pork at four half-joes per barrel, butter at 6s. a pound, and flour fetches any price that is asked.

NEW-YORK, July 11.

Since our last several of the new raised Regiments of Connecticut troops have arrived in town, and appear to be as fine a body of men as any engaged in the present grand struggle for Liberty and Independence. Among them the Light Dragoons, between 4 and 600, who came to town yesterday, and paraded on horseback through the city, made a noble and martial appearance; and as this corps are composed of the substantial Yeomanry of a virtuous Sister State, nothing could be more agreeable or animating to all true friends of their country. — Some of these worthy soldiers assisted, in their present uniforms, at the first reduction of Louisville, and their "lank lean cheeks, and worn-out coats," are viewed with more veneration by their honest countrymen, than if they were glittering Nabobs from India, or Bathaws with nine Tails.

Last Monday evening the statue of King George the Third, on horseback, in the Bowling-green, was taken down, broken to pieces, and its honor levelled with the dust.

A general gaol delivery to debtors took place here yesterday. Out of the first fruits of Independence, the oppressed are set free.

By accounts from the Capes we are informed, that a brig from St. Thomas's with 400 barrels of powder, arms, dry goods, &c. coming into our Capes on Saturday last, was chased by the King-Fisher, and run aground off Cape Mary. Captains Barre and Weeks sent their boats to assist in unloading her; having taken out all the arms, cannon, 160 barrels of powder, and some dry goods, as much as their boats would hold—they discovered the men of war's boats coming to her, upon which they opened the remainder of the powder, and spreading some doubled canvass upon it, they laid on the canvass live coals, and left her—one of the man of war's boats having got alongside, they had hardly boarded her before she blew up.

On Tuesday morning the remainder of the fleet from Halifax came to the Watering place, and there landed their men, our people leaving it the day before. It is said there is on the island 10,000 men.

Upwards of 5000 men, have, within the course of this week arrived here from New-Jersey, Long-Island, &c.

Extract of a letter from Philadelphia, July 3.

"Last night Mr. Sykes arrived here from Charleston, South-Carolina, who informs, that 30 sail of transports had got over Charleston bar; that a fifty gun ship got over by taking out her guns, with several small men of war; that one 50 gun ship struck on the bar going in, and was entirely lost; and that General Lee had arrived with 1500 men from North Carolina. A boat from one of the ships attempted to land with a flag, but was fired on by the fort. The commanding officer of the fort afterwards went on board with a flag, and asked pardon for firing on theirs, and desired to know what was the purport of that flag, was answered, that it was to desire them to deliver up the town: upon which our officer replied, that it would not be done as long as they were able to defend it, and that they would stand to the last extremity."

WAR-OFFICE, Philadelphia, July 6, 1776.

ALL persons in the United American States, who are able to inform the Congress of any quantity of Flint Stone, or any persons who are skilled in the manufacture of Flints, are requested to ob-who has brought one hundred casks of Powder, about seventy or eighty small arms, a number of carriage and swivel guns, a quantity of brimstone, shot, flints, &c.

Messieurs PRINTERS,

THE Small-Pox has ever been a most formidable foe to New-England and its armies. Our enemies knowing this, have taken inhuman pains to propagate it among us; for no barbarians could exceed them in the methods they have employed to distress and destroy us. In this, Heaven has permitted them to succeed, but at the same time has given us in inoculation an astonishing means of robbing this disease of its terror and fatality. At this critical season, we cannot be too speedy or diligent in every where applying this inestimable gift of Heaven for our own security. The General Court has made provision that inoculating hospitals may be established through the Colony, and appointed the Justices of the several Counties to superintend this affair. Many judicious persons, and some Gentlemen of the Congress in their letters, have strongly urged that such a measure may be speedily carried into effect. It is not doubted then, that the Justices to whom this matter is committed, will consider the vast importance of it, and will without delay employ their utmost care and prudence for the establishing such hospitals in a proper number, and the most convenient places, and for introducing the most skilful physicians to attend them. They cannot in any way more essentially serve this Colony, and the common cause of America. All friends to their country cannot fail to contribute their aid to a service of so much importance.

BOSTON, THURSDAY, July 18.

Monday last an Express arrived at Head-Quarters in this Town, from his Excellency General Washington at New-York, with Orders for all the Troops in the Pay of the Continent to march for that City as soon as possible; and this Day, it is said, one Regiment will set off.

Saturday last the General Assembly of this Colony adjourned to Wednesday the 28th Day of August next, then to meet at Watertown.

On Friday last about four o'clock in the Afternoon two Men of War, a 40 Gun and a 28, with two Tenders, taking the Advantage of Wind and Tide, run by the Forts at New-York up the North-River, for about 20 Miles above the City.

Two Hours after arrived a Man of War with a white Flag at the Top-Mast Head, supposed to be Lord Howe.

It is reported that Spain has declared War against Portugal.

On Wednesday the 10th inst. the Congress's Declaration of the Independence of the United States of America, was read at the head of several Brigades in the city of New-York, with acclamations of joy; and, 'tis expected, will be declared in form in that City, by order of the Provincial Congress, in a few days.

Yesterday Morning, a Fifth 13-Inch iron Mortar was found off the End of the Hon. John Hancock, Esq's. Wharf.

The number of Highlanders lately taken prisoners in the different vessels from Scotland, amounts to 750.

The sloop Mifflin, Capt. Eshner, arrived at Philadelphia the third instant from St. Eustatiz, with six tons of powder and dry goods, &c.

Extract of a letter from New-York, July 11.

"The Congress for 'the State of New-York' have resolved unanimously, that they will, at the risque of their lives and fortunes, join with the other Colonies in supporting the Declaration, and have ordered that a copy of it be sent to the Chairman of each Committee in the Colony, with orders to cause the same to be published in their several districts.

"A tory has been taken into custody for making plans of our works for the enemy. These rascals will be continual plagues to us, unless some effectual measures are taken with them.

the night before, and taken possession of every pass on the island. He says he saw most of the troops, but as they were dispersed through the island, he could form no idea of their numbers. Skinner also told him that the fleet from England had arrived at the Hook, on the night of their landing, with 10,000 men, who were to land on Staten-Island, at this morning, that they had placed 2 regiments opposite Amboy, had planted several pieces of cannon there, and taken possession of the ferries. He also asked the officers if the Commissioners were come, to which they answered, yes, and that they were the very men most proper to settle differences of this sort, and also told him they were determined to dislodge our worthy General from New-York.

"He left New-York yesterday morning, where the Jersey militia had most of them arrived; that the General and his troops were in high spirits, and he supposes much disappointed at this sudden movement of Howe's. The Jersey militia have turned out unanimously, to their great credit, but as most of them are gone for New-York, would it not be necessary for Pennsylvania to send them assistance? The gentleman thinks that both the General's express (if one was sent) and the stage are in all probability stopped, for which reason I thought it necessary to send an express. I fear I shall not be able to join our worthy General; however, I am determined to try, and if I fail must be satisfied having done my duty.

"Howe treated him very genteelly, and dismissed him at half past two. The enemy have taken several of the riflemen who were on their way to Pennsylvania. I hope all such scoundrels who will quit an army in sight of an enemy may meet the same fate."

In the House of Representatives, July 22, 1776.

On the memorial of Paul Reed, in behalf of the inhabitants of Boothbay, in the County of Lincoln, praying that the petition and memorial presented by their agent to the General Court, in their session in March last, for quashing the inhabitants of said Boothbay in their petition, may be now read and resolved, That the said petition and memorial presented in March last, and the several answers to the same, which have been received, together with the memorial of said Paul Reed, and all papers accompanying said memorials, be referred to the third Tuesday of the next sitting of the General Court. And that the Secretary be directed to publish this order in the Worcester, Boston, and Portsmouth newspapers, that all persons interested as claimers of land in Boothbay, may be notified to show cause, if any they have at that time, why the prayer of the said petition and memorial of March last, should not be granted.

Sent up for concurrence.

WILLIAM COOPER, Speaker, pro tem.

In COUNCIL, July 22, 1776. Read and concurred.

JOHN AVARY, Dep. Sec'y.

Consented to by major present. Council.

County of the Middlebury.

Bay—Middle District.

To all whom it may concern.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Maritime Court for the Middle District of said Colony will be held at Salem in the County of Essex, on Friday the second Day of August, 1776, at the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon, to try the Justice of the Capture of a Sloop named the Two Friends, Burthen about Ninety-Five Tons, (lately commanded by one Peter Roit) and of her Cargo and Appurtenances; against which a Libel is filed before me; (the said Sloop being brought into the Middle District aforesaid) by Jeremiah Obrian Commander of the armed Sloop named the Machine Liberty, in Behalf of the Officers, Marines and Mariners of the same Sloop, and of the Officers, Marines and Mariners of the armed Schooner called the Diligent, Commanded by John Lamborn, both in the Service of the Government and People of the Massachusetts-Bay: And the Owners of said Sloop Two Friends, or any Persons concerned, may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the same Sloop and her Cargo and Appurtenances should not be condemned.

TIM. PICKERING Jus. Judge of said Court.

STRAYED or stolen from William Powell, of this Town, on the 2d Instant a Bay Gelding, 15 Hands high, stout made, no white on him, hogged Mane, in high Flesh, and very smooth short Coat, trots all, and rather heavy and slow — If strayed, a handsome Reward will be given for his Return, if stolen and the Thief secured with the Horse, Fifty Dollars will be paid by said Powell.

DESERTED from my Company, in Colonel Israel Hutchinson's Regiment, Samuel Robinson, about five Feet ten Inches high, light Complexion, short brown Hair; had on when he went off, a white short Jacket, leather Breeches, and milled Stockings.

We are the people of Franklin College, the people of 1975-76, and the people who work, play, laugh, cry, and enjoy—together.

We combine our efforts, talents, and energies to form the student body. Each of our aspirations, expectations, and goals emerge through our activities.

We are all individuals fulfilling our desires in our individualistic way, and by combining these talents we become the student body of Franklin College.

We work together, we enjoy, and we combine our efforts.

We ARE the people . . .

Homecoming

Homecoming, whether it be 1940, 1950 or 1975, possesses one thing—excitement.

In 1975—the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and Phi Delta Theta fraternity sponsored a "tramp-a-thon" to help raise funds for the Johnson County Association for the Mentally Retarded. The "tramping" started the night before Homecoming and continued during the festive day until 5 p.m. Many students, professors and administrators joined in the fun for the 20-hour event and raised a total of $55.26 for their efforts.

An Arts and Crafts Fair featuring merchants from virtually everywhere filled the walks and grounds on the Mall selling candles, beads, painting and many other items, including decoupage.

Then of course, the big moment—the football game and crowning of the queen, Cathy Seamonds, a freshman representing Delta Delta Delta, by Acting President Richard Park.

The Homecoming Concert was the highpoint of a full day's activities, with "Rush" and "Ginger" groups performing in the Women's Gymnasium.

Thus ended another Homecoming Weekend. But it doesn't stop here—for next year in the fall, it will emerge again, "bigger and better" than ever.

C—The hopes and dreams of the Indiana Baptist Convention finally became a reality February 8, 1976 when the groundbreaking ceremony for the Franklin College chapel took place. Funds were raised by the Indiana Baptist Convention. The chapel was designed by Henry Meier who also supervised its construction. Completion date is September 1976.

In conjunction with America's bicentennial celebration, Shirk Hall (left) and Stott Hall (pictured on the title page) were named to the National Register of Historical Places on October 29, 1975.

The two buildings were accepted by the National Park Service on behalf of the United States Department of Interior. Stott Hall was built in 1888 and Shirk Hall in 1903.

Roger Douglas Branigin 1902-1975

On November 19, 1975 one of Franklin College's greatest benefactors, Roger Douglas Branigin, died. Branigin, a member of the class of 1923, was a college trustee from 1937 until his death. He served as chairman and honorary chairman of the board.

An active alumnus, Branigin was "an indefatigable worker for his alma mater." He originated and personally built up the David Demaree Banta Historical Collections in the college library. The collection consists of books about Indiana and history of the Northwest Territory that he acquired during his lifetime.

He also gave the college a number of priceless articles, including papers and documents of his tenure as 42nd Governor of the State of Indiana, 1965-1969.

Branigin and his wife, Josephine, also an alumnae, presented the campus with a set of chimes in memory of his brothers who were also graduates of the college. The chimes ring out the hours and play a variety of songs three times a day.

Former President Wesley Haines said, "Nothing during his alumni years was built, programmed or done here without Roger Branigin having a strong hand in it, financially, in wisdom, input, and otherwise."

Acting President Richard M. Park expressed his death as "the passing not only of a friend but of an era of Franklin College." He will be long remembered by those who knew him and others through his contributions to country, state, community and his alma mater.

Our twelfth president

Edwin Allen Penn was named as twelfth president of Franklin College on March 8.

Dr. Penn, born in Elkhart, Ind., was graduated from Southport High School and holds a B.S. degree from Julliard and an M.A. and Ed. D. in educational administration from Columbia University.

Penn has been an Assistant to the President at Boston University. Prior to this he served as assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Texas, leaving there with the dean who became president of Boston University.

Dr. Penn was also assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences of the University of Hawaii.

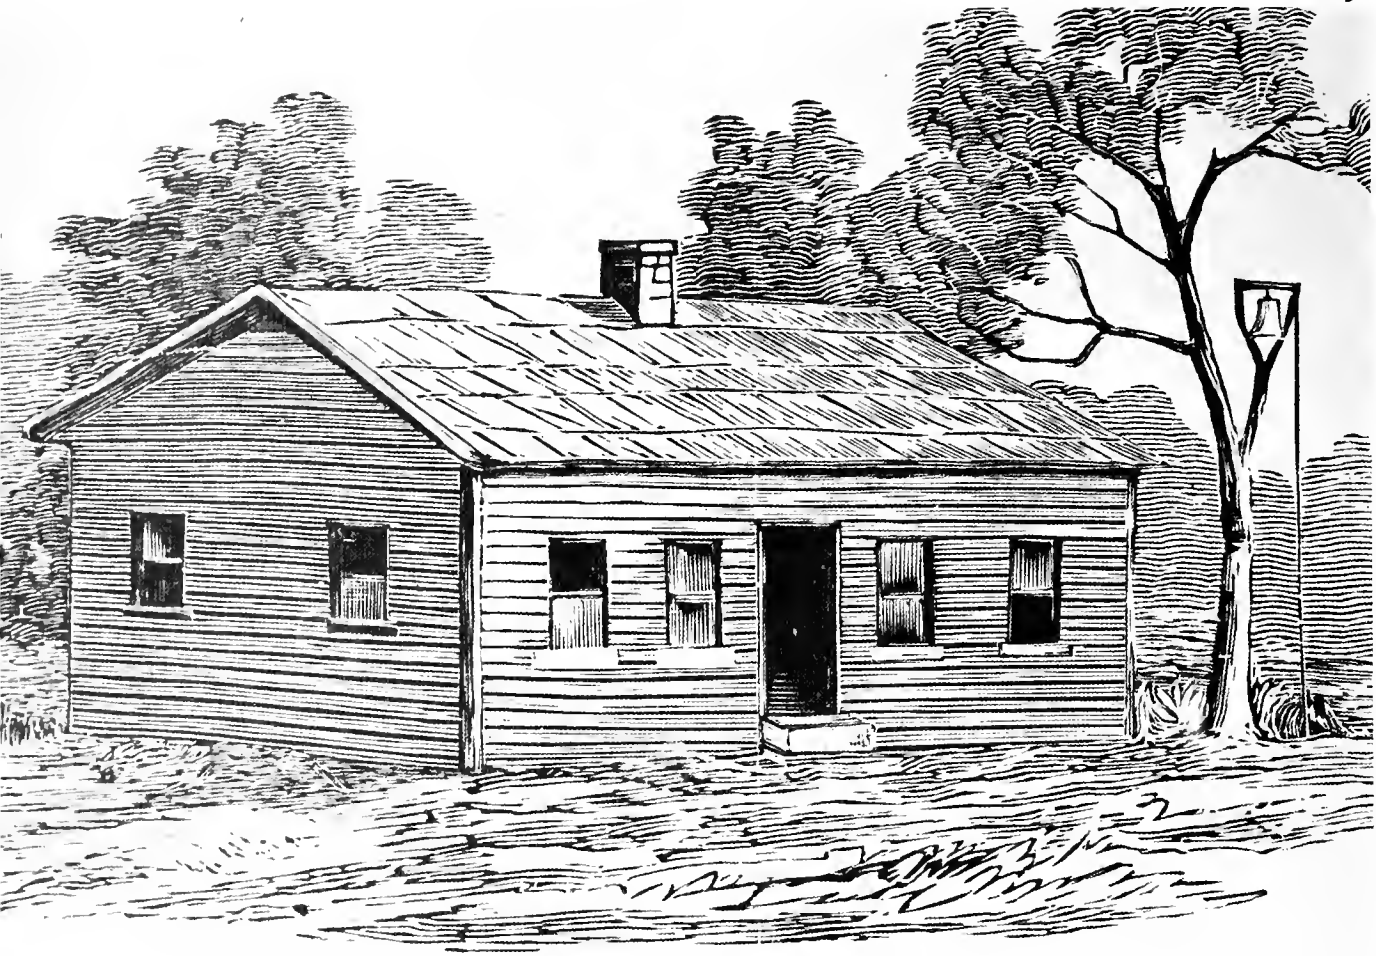

As assistant to the president at Boston, Penn was involved in all phases of college curriculum, including academic, business and student affairs.

His activities have included the development and review of academic programs, both on campus and abroad; coordination of appointments and salary adjustments; handling of faculty grievances; and handling of special cases involving admissions, financial assistance, or academic progress of students.

Dr. Penn is married and has three children; ages twelve, nine and four years.

Dr. Penn assumed his office of president, July 1, 1976.

1776 "Yesterday the greatest question was decided which ever was debated in America, and a greater perhaps never was, nor will be, decided among men. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward for everyone."

The 1975-76 year was filled with achievement and promise for the future. The major events included groundbreaking for a new chapel and appointment by the Board of Trustees of a new president.

The new chapel financed by the Indiana Baptist Convention is evidence of the continued growth on campus. The groundbreaking for the chapel took place just ten months after the newest building on campus, the Spurlock Physical Education Building, had been completed.

Four new president, Dr. Edwin Allen Penn, is a native Hoosier whose previous experience included top administrative jobs at the University of Hawaii, University of Texas and Boston University.

As Franklin continued to move ahead, the past was recognized in this bicentennial year. Shirk Hall and Stott Hall were named to the Register of Historic National Landmarks by the Department of the United States Interior.

Athletics continued to put Franklin in the spotlight as the men's varsity team went to the NAIA National Basketball Tournament in Kansas City while the women's team went to the state finals for small colleges.

In a time when the past seemed sometimes better than the present, Franklin College can look back with pride and to the future with anticipation of success.

GRAND COUNCIL OF AMERICA.
In CONGRESS, July 4, 1775.
 A DECLARATION
By the REPRESENTATIVES of the
 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
In GENERAL Congress assembled.

WHEN in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.—That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great-Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to assent to laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing

It must be difficult to run when junior defensive back Mark Montgomery decides to lock his arms around your ankles. Although Montgomery stopped this Rose-Hulman ball carrier, the Engineers came from behind to upset the Grizzlies, 22-21.

lead Grizzlies to 6-4 record

Coach Stewart "Red" Faught's Grizzlies had another outstanding year in 1975, finishing with a 6-4 record. Game highlights included the come-from-behind victories over Heidelberg and Georgetown. Several players were honored with post season awards. For the first time in Franklin's football history, one was named to the NAIA Division II first team. All-American Brad Crawford broke a team record with nine interceptions. Crawford's sophomore classmate Joe Kelly led all Indiana small schools in scoring with 88 points. Receiving Honorable Mention awards in the NAIA were Steve Harris, Tim Messer, Jeff Lawrie, Mark Montgomery and Dana Standefer. Messer, a senior defensive end, won the Most Valuable Player Award while Tom Andress won the Mental Attitude Award and Lawrie was named the Best Offensive Lineman.

City with District 21 title

Without a doubt, the highlight of the 1975-76 year in sports at Franklin College was the performance of Coach Ed Thompson's varsity basketball team. The Grizzlies, led by senior tri-captains Larry Hackett, Scott Seright and Wayne Whisman, earned the ranking of the top independent team in NAIA District 21 as they entered the district tourney. Franklin edged Earlham 74-70 and beat Manchester 74-63 in the final. The champs, followed by over 100 fanatic fans, went to the national tournament in Kansas City where they fell in the opening round to Wisconsin-Parkside 74-61. Besides the tri-captains, the Grizzlies were led by Steve Austin, Darrel Heuchan, Mark Humes and Andy Pritchard.

A. Senior Wayne Whisman eluded three Manchester defenders to make this shot in the District 21 championship game. Whisman, a tri-captain, led the Grizzlies past the Spartans, 74-63.

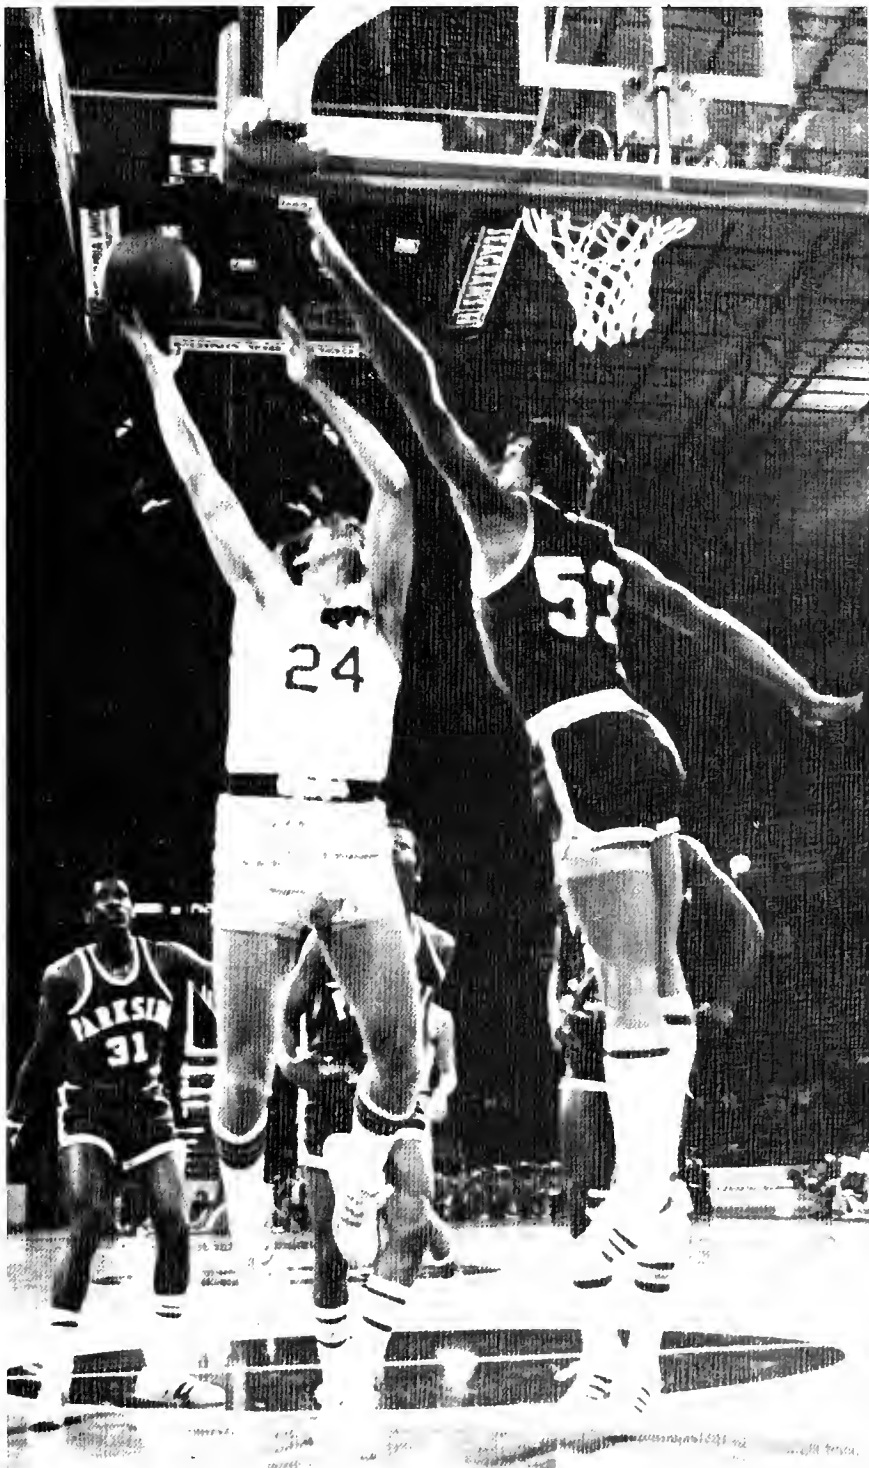

B. Scott Seright, another senior tri-captain, set the all-time rebounding mark for Franklin College this year. A four-year letter winner, Seright went up strong for two points against Manchester.

C. The third senior tri-captain, Larry Hackett, tried to shoot over this Wisconsin-Parkside defender at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City. Hackett had the single-game scoring mark by scoring 28 points in one game.

James, Warner lead JV's to 10-2 mark

Sophomores Dan Bob James and Rick Warner were the sparkplugs behind an explosive offense which paced the Grizzly junior varsity to a 10-2 record. James averaged 18.7 points per game and Warner followed with 14.9. Other standouts for Coach Bob Lovell's team included Bill Cragen, Jeff Pittman and Doug West. Providing top-notch bench play were Ray Baron, Leon Cornell, Dave Newman and Gary Robinson.

A. Freshman junior varsity player Jeff Pittman left the crew of Allison's Industries flat-footed as he practiced his George McGinnis-like shot.

B. Long, lean Leon Cornell at times appeared to be 12 feet tall to his opponents. No, Leon, you put the ball in the basket—not the ceiling light.

Duerksen dashes to tie two records

Franklin continued to improve its track program this year as the team raced to a third place finish in the NAIA District 21 track meet. Randy Duerksen tied records in the 220-yard dash with 22.2 seconds and in the 100-yard dash with 9.9 seconds. He was also a member of the All District 21 440-yard relay team along with teammates Brad Crawford, Ray Dorulla and Bob Kunas.

B. Russ Lindner demonstrated his fingertip control of the shot before winning in the Marion meet.

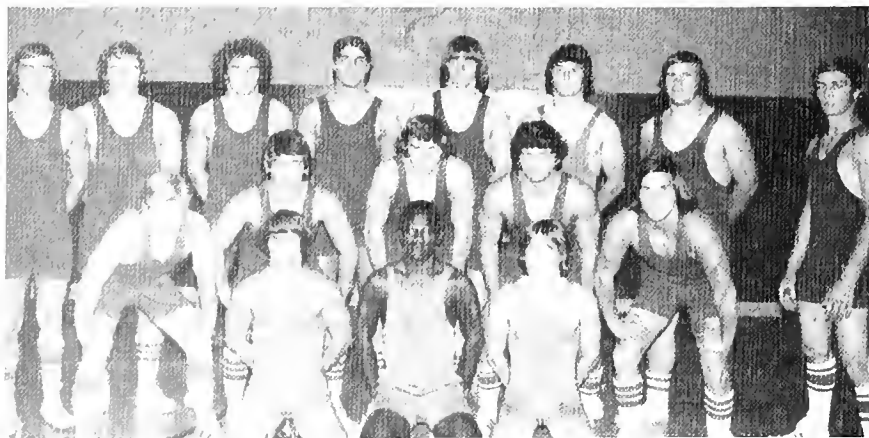

C. Brad Crawford placed fourth in the District 21 meet with a leap of 21'4 1/4".

Young grapplers led

Coach Harold "Butch" Lawson's wrestlers continued as one of the top teams in Indiana this year as they compiled a 32-8 record. Franklin's co-captain seniors, Arnie Brown and Stan Worthington, provided the necessary leadership for the squad loaded with promising underclassmen. The Grizzly grapplers won their own Franklin Invitational tourney and placed second in the 17-team Millikin Invitational.

B. Sophomore Joe Brown (left) often doubled as a contortionist during his matches to defeat unsuspecting foes. It evidently worked as he set a record with 16 pins while compiling a 23-5-1 mark for the year.

B.

Stan Goodman, a true champ

Little State champion Stan Goodman, 19, and his brother Tim, 17, were killed on March 20 in a car accident near their home in Greensburg. Stan won many honors in his life. He was the recipient of the "mental attitude" award this year at Franklin and also was an Indiana high school state champion in the 112-pound class. Stan, a freshman, is pictured here with his Little State medal for winning the 134-pound division.

by Brown, Elliott

Franklin hosted the Little State tourney for the first time and kept three of the first place awards. Arnie Brown and freshmen Mark Elliott and Stan Goodman won in their divisions. Joe Brown set a record during the year with 16 pins. Elliott won his last 22 matches in a row and set a record for wins in a single season with a 24-2 record.

A.

B.

A. Co-captain Stan Worthington usually found his opponents on the mat during his four years at Franklin, but not everyone goes for the traditional approach to wrestling.

B. A familiar sight in the last four years was when Arnie Brown's hand was raised in victory. Here he just won his third Little State championship. Brown finished his career as the winningest Franklin wrestler of all time with 75 victories.

C. Mark Elliott won his Little State championship by pinning his opponent from Taylor. Only a freshman, Elliott will be counted on to be a leader on next year's squad.

C.

Grizzlies fall to 9-13 season as too many errors take toll

It could best be described as a learning year for Coach Ed Thompson's baseball team. After jumping off to a respectable start, the youthful Grizzlies fell prone to their inexperience. Even though there were only two seniors on the squad, Bill Kaminski and Mike Wisley, the Grizzlies did look exceptional at times. One high point was the split against highly-touted Butler. Steve Austin, Bruce Hensley and Mark Toppe had several good outings on the mound for Franklin.

A. Freshman Mark Fox fires the ball from his shortstop position in the Anderson game. Fox and his steady glove will help stabilize the Grizzlies' infield next year.

B.

B. Willy Moistner demonstrated his windup-and-knock-off-your-cap trick while pitching against the Anderson Ravens. Actually, the wind was gusting up to 40 m.p.h. in that game.

C. Billy "The Kid" "Bombino" Kaminski showed the fearless form that opposing hitters dreaded to see on the mound. A four-year player, Kaminski was a sure-handed first baseman as well as a pinball champion.

C.

B. Dennis Reeves showed his putting prowess which gave him the lowest average strokes for 18 holes with 80.16

C. One of the top golfers on the squad was Randy Lewis. He had the longest drives on the team all year.

Franklin's golfers finished their season with a 55-51 mark for the year with an enthusiastic, yet untested, group of players. Coach Bob Foist relied upon John Auld, Randy Lewis, Dennis Reeves, Fred Weest and Doug West to compete for the college in most of the meets.

Tennis team loved to smash opponents

Coach Doreen St. Clair should be proud of her veteran tennis squad which won its first seven meets before dropping the final two. The team outscored its opponents 60-21 and revenged a loss in 1975 to Bellarmine. Seniors Dave Broshears, Stu Mathis, Jim Royce and Bob Walters were all outstanding.

A. Front row: Jeff Pinnick, Stu Mathis, Rod Stombaugh, Dave Broshears. Back row: Coach Doreen St. Clair, Bob Walters, Tim Harrington, Jim Royce, Brad Emons, Dan Calkins.

B. Junior Brad Emons posted a 7-2 record in singles competition to win the most improved player award. "Flash" used his 6'3" frame and Detroit finesse to aid the Grizzlies' cause.

C. Bob Walters coupled with fellow senior Jim Royce to have the best doubles record with a 5-1 mark. Walters was a key factor in the tennis team's excellent 7-2 season.

B. Melody Acton battles for the ball with her Taylor opponent as Kathy Stricker (11) and Debbie Waltz cheer for their teammate.

C. The Grizzlyette's defense was well-positioned on this shot from an alum as (l-r) Judy Claycombe, Debbie Henkle, Dixie Wilkins and Sal Risinger get set. Honorary alum Doreen St. Clair was sporting the latest fall field hockey fashions and the alumni fashioned a 3-2 win over the startled Grizzlyettes.

Franklin's field hockey fortunes were highlighted by wins over Hanover, Indiana Central and Taylor. Panda Denny's 10 goals paced the Grizzlyettes to a 3-1-1 regular season record before they dropped state playoff games to DePauw and Marion. Judy Claycombe tallied four goals and Barb Rutan sparkled in the goal for Franklin. Nineteen women tried out for the squad which was captained by senior Dedra Montgomery.

Freshman women spark tennis team

Coach Barbara Richard's women's tennis team proved that inexperience isn't always a handicap. Franklin had nine underclassmen on the 1975 team but still managed a successful 4-3 record with victories over Anderson, DePauw, Huntington and Indiana Central. Three freshmen had the best records in singles with Sue Rider (6-1), Jeanne Fitzgerald (4-1) and Toni Hess (4-3) leading the team.

B. A little extra power on the serve helped freshman Toni Hess become one of the top players on the team. Hess compiled a 4-3 record in singles competition.

C. Sophomore Kim Shaver shows her follow-through in the team's victory over Anderson.

Cheerleaders inspire teams

Five women united their voices and spirits to lead the Franklin athletic teams and fans in cheers throughout the year. The cheerleaders even journeyed to Kansas City to let everyone in Kemper Arena know we were there—Go Grizzlies, Go!

The 1975-76 cheerleaders were Brenda Keeton, Fanny Ivanoff, LuAnn Williams, Becky Albano and Diana Huff.

A. VARSITY. Front row: Sue Rider, Kathy Stricker, Judy Claycambe, Panda Denny, Coach Doreen St. Clair. Back

Volleyball team squeezes in 18 games

Franklin's varsity volleyball team sandwiched in its schedule between field hockey and basketball and still managed an 11-7 record. Seniors Alberta Hohn and Dedra Montgomery paced the varsity. Nine members of the junior varsity finished with a 4-4 mark.

B. JUNIOR VARSITY: Tina Shook, Loretta Bunge, Sal Risinger, Karla Duckwall, Dixie Wilkins, Pam Ramsey, Julee Lavine, Andrea Balmer, Pat Green.

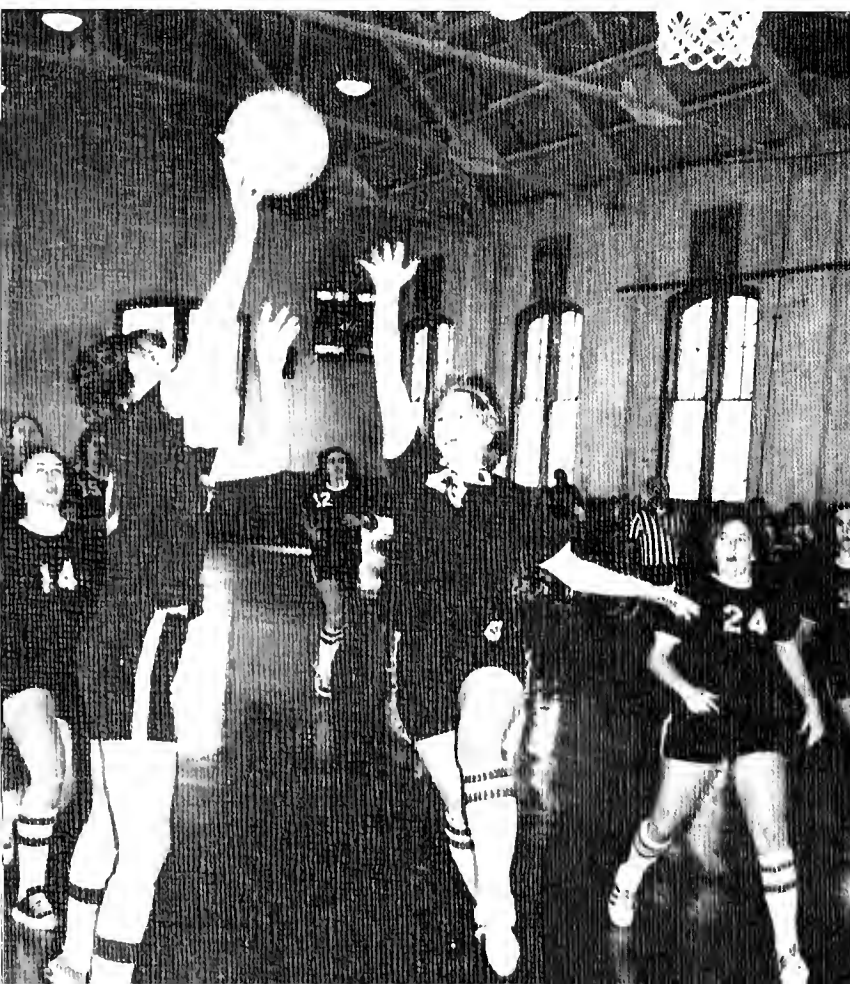

C. Kathy Stricker sets up one of her teammates for the spike.

Women win IWISO District title

B.

The highlight of the women's basketball season was hosting and winning the Indiana Women's Intercollegiate Sports Organization Southern District tourney. Freshman Lisa Heath was the team's high scorer with a 14.6 average per game. Other standouts for the Grizzlyettes included Dedra Montgomery, Sharon Murphy and Kathy Stricker.

C.

B. Debbie Waltz broke past the Indiana Central defense for an easy layup.

C. Talk about being tied up! Franklin's Sharon Murphy (10), Andrea Balmer, Lisa Heath and Debbie Waltz move in on a Taylor player for the kill—or should we say the ball?

Softball team ends with 7-4 record

Coach Ruth Callon's crew had a sharp change for the better this year as the Grizzlyettes finished with a strong 7-4 mark as compared to only one victory and 16 losses in the past two years. A pair of 13-12 defeats in the state tournament put an end to any hopes of a state title. Three freshmen were key in the turnabout of events this year. Betsy Freeland, Lisa Heath and Dixie Wilkins all started and did a fantastic job.

A.

B. Dedra Montgomery was a great competitor in all the women's sports and was awarded the David Naile award which is given to an outstanding upperclass woman athlete. Here Dedra sends one into orbit.

B.

C. You can't catch 'em all, but Lisa Heath did manage to catch more than her share as she was an important cog in the smooth-running softball machine.

the forms of our governments :
 For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.
 He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.
 He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.
 He is at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.
 He has constrained our fellow citizens taken captive on the high seas to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.
 He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction, of all ages, sexes and conditions.
 In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress, in the most humble terms: Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.
 Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and mag-

Student Congress allocates funds

Members of the Student Congress Executive Board; Stu Mathis, Mike Wisley, Chris Groning and Crystal Krupchak meet informally to discuss Student Congress business.

Student Congress, the representative body of Franklin College students, had twenty-one elected members who conducted business each Wednesday in the Campus Center.

Congress joined the Indiana Student Association to give students better services and easier access to interaction with other campuses. Two ISA programs, Student Legislative Involvement Project and the Franklin College Travel Service helped students to gain a voice in government and to produce reduced travel rates.

A large portion of the student activity fee was approved by Congress for Student Entertainment Board. The remainder of the funds were allocated to clubs and organizations after requests were voted upon. Fall Fever Day was sponsored in October.

An important meeting in February allowed Richard Park, acting president, and John Chiarotti, vice president for financial affairs, to be questioned on the increase in tuition, room and board costs for 1976-1977.

SEB provides entertainment

Leo Kotte, a contemporary folk singer, plays his guitar at the SEB sponsored Spring Concert.

The Student Entertainment Board, headed by chairwoman Vicki Jones, provided several different types of entertainment for the entire campus. SEB met weekly and planned activities. Meetings were open to students for ideas and help on committees.

SEB sponsored various activities including off-campus dances in Indianapolis. Homecoming festivities featured the Rush concert, a Halloween party, games nights, speakers of interest such as Donald Freed, the co-author of Executive Action; a variety of movies and roller and ice skating nights.

In March the Franklin Follies were sponsored by SEB. A wide variety of campus talent entertained those who attended the annual Follies held in the Franklin Room. On March 27, Leo Kotte was featured at a spring concert in the barn. Wet Willie played at a concert in April.

Steve Teets and Gary Stovall try a different roller skating technique at one SEB function.

The Franklin makes improvements

The Franklin gave readers a balanced weekly report of various campus events along with feature articles. The editorial staff of the Franklin was enlarged to improve the quality of the paper. With the use of compugraphic equipment, the entire process of writing, editing, typesetting and layout was completed in the Journalism Department by the staff.

More features and in-depth sports stories, such as the NAIA Basketball Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri, expanded sports coverage.

Fourteen editorial staff members worked late each Wednesday evening to meet deadlines.

Special eight-page editions were prepared both semesters. In the fall an edition featured work submitted by journalism classes.

Professor Joe Harper, a consultant from the University of Illinois, gave the staff ideas for improvement.

Tom Moccobe, sports editor, and Sharon Isenhower, feature editor, work on a layout.

Managing editor Jean Everett makes adjustments on a final layout with the help of a new light table.

Yearbook, radio "voice of FC"

The Almanack staff met in the fall to organize sections and ideas for the 1976 yearbook. The staff met weekly. Coverage of campus events, sports and organizations were part of a busy schedule. Deadlines for copy and lay-outs had to be met frequently.

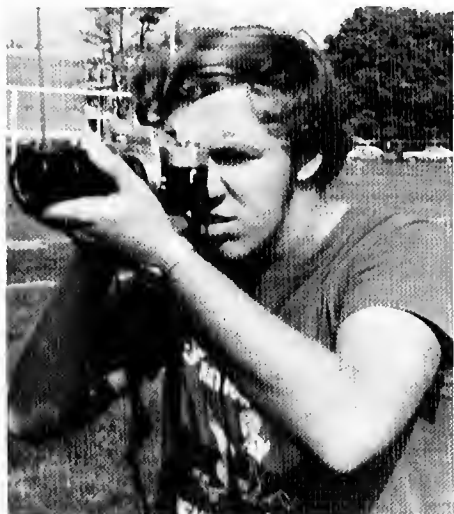

Franklin's radio station, WFCI, operated on a frequency of 89.3 FM and 590 AM on campus. A staff of 35 members were directed by seven professional staff members, who coordinated station programming.

The purchase of a new tape deck in the fall helped the local broadcasters in producing their shows.

With the completion of a new station in the Cline-Hoover lobby, the staff moved equipment from the basement of Cline Hall during spring vacation.

RA's promote positive environment

Fifteen Residents Assistants were hired by the Student Life Office to provide a wide variety of responsibilities including administrative functions, peer advising and counseling, program development and the promotion of a positive and productive group living environment.

The Resident Assistants returned two weeks before the fall semester to complete a Fall Inservice Training Program and to help with freshmen orientation.

In November a weekend retreat allowed the RA's to take a break from responsibilities.

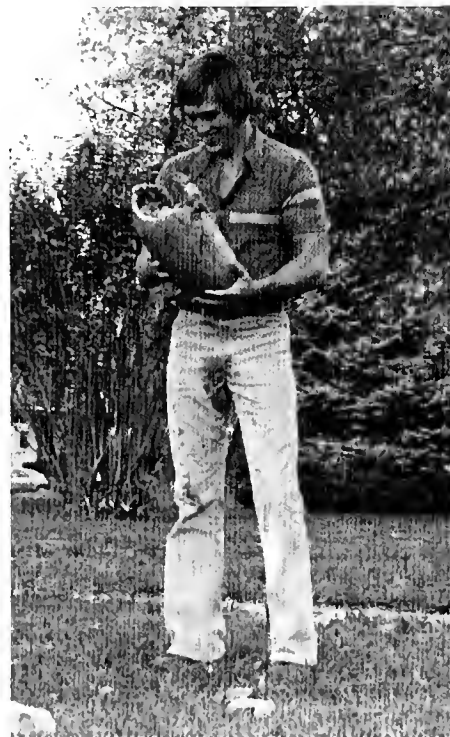

Dean of Student Life, Cliff Heise and Residence Hall Coordinators Merietta Smith and Paul Rifkin met with staff members on Tuesday evenings to discuss any problems with residents, halls, or obligations.

In April, the 1976-1977 Resident Assistants were chosen after several applicants completed a three step application and interview process.

Junior Craig Salisbury also acts as "mailman" in filling student mailboxes.

RHAC, SAC lend helping hand

Student Admission Corps members aided the admissions office in planning visitation days for prospective students. These visitation days were held both semesters.

Campus tours, activity fairs and question and answer sessions allowed SAC members to become acquainted with next year's freshmen.

SAC members worked on a voluntary basis in the admissions office in preparing pamphlets, letters and notices.

Honoraries promote higher values

Blue Key, the national honorary fraternity for junior and senior men, had eight members chosen on their scholastic achievement, campus leadership and participation in organizations.

Lancers, the honorary fraternity for freshman and sophomores, were chosen in the spring. Eleven men were members.

Gold Quill members, a women's honorary, were selected by last year's members based on grade-point-averages and campus and community activities.

Laurels membership was selected from the freshman and sophomore class in May.

At Honors Day each honorary awarded trophies to an outstanding member.

and outstanding students

Fifteen seniors were first selected by the faculty and a final selection made by a special committee to appear in the 1976 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Chosen for academic achievement and for involvement in various sports, activities or organizations, these outstanding seniors represented Franklin College in the yearly publication.

Phi Omega Psi, a national broadcasting fraternity, honors students who have completed two or more semesters in broadcasting. Members, who broadcast on WFCI, are required to attain a 2.5 grade-point-average.

In late February, six students were initiated to help increase interest and promote better broadcasting at WFCI.

Phi Omega Psi—Back row: Andy Henderson, Dr. Raymond Cowan, Derek Thomas, Ralph Greenslade. Front row: Tom Hale, Don Tingle, president; Laurie Egdorf, treasurer; Marcus Mims, Paul Fedorchak, secretary.

Delta Mu Delta, a national business honorary, initiated outstanding business majors in the fall.

Chi Beta Phi, the fraternity of science and math scholars, honored students who have attained a 3.0 grade-point-average in their major and who have completed twenty credit hours of science or math.

An April banquet recognized members.

Women In Communications, Inc., formerly called Theta Sigma Phi, is an honorary that lauds outstanding women in journalism.

Women in Communications Inc.—Provisional Members—Mary Jo Lane, Jan Shults, Cindy Remke.

Apogee, environmental club involve many

The Apogee was founded in 1962 by Professor Robert Chupp as an insert to the newspaper, the Franklin and later became an annual publication.

Now, Franklin's literary magazine is a medium that enables students to contribute literary work, creative writing, art and photography. A small staff designs the book and arranges for entries of articles.

Environmental Awareness Club was founded in 1974 by a group of students interested in field biology and a variety of outdoor activities including hiking and camping. This year's club acquired many new members.

Activities included camping at Indiana Dunes, spelunking in southern Indiana, touring Eli Lilly, visiting the Cincinnati Zoo, birdwatching at Muscatatuck and numerous hikes in local areas.

Apogee—Karyl Cleary, Teresa Hagee, Michele Omahana, co-editor; Evelyn Frazier.

BSU promotes black culture

Bill Perry, director of information for the National Association for Mental Health, speaks at an informal rap session during Black Awareness Weekend.

BSU member, Wanda Waters, is happy after being selected one of the thirty-three princesses for the Indianapolis "500" Festival.

Highlighted with a Black Awareness Weekend, the Black Student Union became involved in several activities this past year.

The main purpose of BSU was to promote culture on the campus and expose its Black students to its cultural heritage. Contributing to this promotion was a Black Library, which was open to the entire campus, speakers such as Bill Perry, and Eugene Perkins, a poet, playwright and author; an all-campus dance, a picnic in May and rap sessions among the members. BSU sponsored a Black Intramural Team, Blood, and had several members that serve as an admissions recruiting committee.

Meeting every two weeks, the officers this year were William Thompson, spokesman; Derek Thomas, treasurer; and Johnny Starks, secretary.

Some BSU members relax with a "friend" on the bench in front of Bryan Hall.

Panhel, IFC promote greek unity

Panhellenic Council, a representative body of the four sororities, had as its purpose to promote greek unity on campus. In September a candlelight ceremony introduced new sorority pledges to greek life. Members from each sorority met several times a month to plan functions.

In March the Panhellenic Formal held at the Sheraton Inn in Indianapolis was attended by members of the four sororities.

The Interfraternity Council promoted greek unity between the three fraternities. Working with the Panhellenic Council many activities were planned for the first week in May as Greek Week. An annual Trike Race, a soft-ball tournament, Trivia Bowl and a get-together at Horseshoe Camp highlighted the week's events.

Sue Rodman and Sheila Moore are ready to go in the Trike Race.

Students join various clubs

The Franklin College International Club is an organization that has been formed for the purpose of bringing about a greater understanding between different cultures, traditions and histories of the diverse countries represented here.

The highlight of the year for the club was the International Festival they sponsored. The Festival consisted of three days of events—movies, a dance, and speakers which was topped off by the International Dinner. President for the 1976 Club was Taufiq Anwar.

The Society for Collegiate Journalists, formerly Alpha Phi Gamma, was organized in 1975. As a national co-educational honorary, it recognizes qualified journalists of a sophomore standing or better.

In May a dinner with students involved in communications honored outstanding journalists who work on campus publications. Cheryl Michel and Gary Schenkel were named as top club reporters.

Student actors have a successful year

Connie Winger and Mark McCord go over their lines in "Winnie the Pooh" while John Gallagher looks on.

Sophomore Ken Gentile is in deep thought as part of his role as Allen Felix in "Play It Again, Sam."

Scott Bailey as Hildy Johnson in "The Front Page" tries to come up with an answer to Hildy's problem.

The 1975-76 school year was a good one for the Franklin Theatre, as students got together to produce a drama, two comedies, a children's play and a musical revue.

The year began with "Play it again, Sam" which was a comedy sponsored by Theta Alpha Phi. Just before Christmas break a children's play "Winnie the Pooh" was performed by the Franklin Student Productions.

During Winter Term the drama "Prisoner of Second Avenue" was produced, and directed by Tony Newland.

Comedy then again stirred in the hearts of the Franklin student actors as they presented "The Front Page." Finally the last production of the year was a musical review put together by the students themselves. This show called "Life Upon A Wicked Stage" was a revue of songs from well-known American musicals.

Six members tapped by WIC at Matrix Table

The biggest event for the year sponsored by WIC Inc. is the Matrix Table held in May. At this dinner new members are tapped. Also there is a Headliner Award given to a woman on campus who has contributed to communications. Dr. Thelma Tsismanakis received the award.

President of the 1975-76 Franklin Women In Communication chapter was Peggy Shidaker. Professor Robert Chupp is advisor to the group.

The 1976 Franklin College Choir members are; (front left to right) First row: Robin Naum, Nancy Fox, Lisa Rosenberger, Paula Mitchell, April Mann, Brenda Howard and Laurie Egdorf. Second row: Joyce Kramer, Cathy Cutler, Cheryl Smith, Margo Whitley, Doris Winegar, Brenda Isley, Chris Sokolek, Jennifer Briggs. Third row: Gary Schenkel, Rick Sanders, Tony Newland, Joe Dallas, Larry Drake, Thellen Park, Mary Lou Carpenter. Fourth row: Joe Searcy, John Gallagher, John Markwalter, Tom Maccabe, Rip Touseull, Mark McCord and Jerry Maguire. Seated at piano is Bev Fuller. Professor Sam Hicks is directing the choir.

Choirs sing at various functions

The pride and joy of the Franklin Music Department are its choir and singing group called "The Gathering." The Gathering was formed in 1972 and is sponsored by Professor Sam Hicks. The Gathering performed at several church services, groundbreaking ceremonies for the new chapel, Honors Day and Graduation ceremonies.

May Sing 1976

Terri Zuffa (center) sings to her Pi Phi sisters, Sue Farrar, Debbie Denslaw, Connie Lusk, Karen Kissick and Kathy Haynes.

Delores Maynard, Kim Johnson, Becky Albano, and Rabin Weber lead their Delta

Zeta sisters through "Dancin' Through the Ages."

Franklin Independent Women won in the traditional category of May Sing.

Student Congress president Roger Walford gives May Queen Joie Wildman a congratulatory kiss.

Parents' Weekend, May 8, was climaxed by the annual May Sing competition.

Joie Wildman, a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, was crowned queen of the event. Her court consisted of Sharon Acton, Zeta Tau Alpha; Jani Hull, Pi Beta Phi; Rhonda McKittrick, Delta Zeta; and Cheryl Smith, independent women.

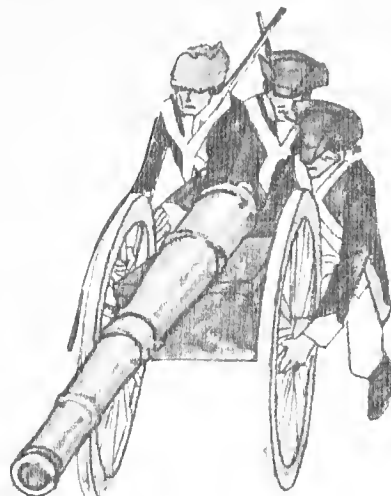

Pi Beta Phi sorority won in the novelty division of the event while the Franklin Independent Women won the traditional division.

Twenty-nine freshmen and sophomores were inducted into Laurels and Lancers scholastic honoraries, while 23 juniors and seniors were tapped for Gold Quill and Blue Key, upperclassmen honoraries.

William Smith and Diana Cross were also named the Greek Man and Greek Woman of the year during the event.

 Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great-Britain, is, and

Tri Delts lead organizations

With enthusiasm, the Tri Delta members achieved many goals this year. They raised money through raffles, Christmas caroling, and Sleigh Bell Day, a national Tri Delta fund-raising project. While $200 in scholarship money was awarded to a Franklin College student, another donation was given to Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis for cancer research. The girls also sponsored a breast examination seminar for the campus. The Tri Delts had the highest grade point average on campus first semester. They come out on top in football intramurals and won first place in the banner competition during Homecoming. Many Tri Delts are leaders in campus organizations: Vicki Jones is chairperson of SEB; Teresa Hagee is president of the Panhellenic Council; Leslie Townsend is coordinator of SAC; and Cathy Cutler is president of Franklin College Singers.

Circus theme for pledge dance

Tri Delta pledges were initiated on Valentine's Day. They raised an impressive sum for the year by raffles, bake sales, window wipes, and many banquets. The money was primarily used to put on the pledge dance which had a circus theme of "The Greatest Delta Show on Earth."

Rooms used at Holiday Inn South were decorated with a circus tent and stuffed animals in cages, and many people wore costumes. As a pledge, Cathy Seamonds was crowned Football Homecoming Queen. Taking advantage of a chance to get away from their actives and the campus, pledge class members became better acquainted by spending a night at the Hilltop Inn.

Delta Zeta actives do volunteer work

The Delta Zeta chapter at Franklin moved their officer elections up to November this year. Members of the chapter did volunteer work at the Masonic Home and distributed food baskets at Christmas and Easter. They also participated in the Johnson County Blood Drive and WFCI Cancer Marathon. Some Delta Zeta members attended classes in "sign" language and a contest for students of the Indiana School for the Deaf. In February, the chapter presented "Flame Fantasy," a benefit dinner and style show. Proceeds went to Galludet College for the Deaf. The Franklin Delta Zeta chapter went to Indiana University at Bloomington for their Province Day which is similar to state day. They attended conventions and workshops. Diana Cross received the Outstanding Senior of Psi Chapter Award.

Delta Zeta pledges practice "kidnapping"

With Chicago, Illinois as their destination, the 1975 Delta Zeta pledge class kidnapped Chapter President Andrea Kopil and left for their walk out. Spending the weekend of March 5 and 6 sightseeing in the city, they also had a pizza party at the famous "Geno's Pizza Parlour."

The pledge class raised money through selling candy and stationery, taking Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity President Frank Berry for ransom, and performing "Singing Valentines" in Saga. The Delta Zeta pledges took the active chapter to a Cincinnati Reds game. The girls also performed their annual "Pumpkin Serenade" to the Fraternities and deans, and sold eggs. The proceeds went to the Indiana School for the Deaf. Individual honorees were Paula Mitchell and Jane Gole. They received the Outstanding Pledge Award and the Pledge Scholarship respectively.

Pi Phis take three out of five awards

Two new projects were tried by Pi Beta Phi Sorority this year. In addition to charity work and Cookie Shines, and traditional Pi Phi gatherings, they held a "Mother's Day" to acquaint mothers with the organization, and hosted traveling Graduate Counselor Cindy Kralis, who also attended their first officer's training retreat.

The Franklin chapter of Pi Beta Phi received three of the five highest awards given at their annual State Day. They received most Improved GPA and the scholarship cup for the highest grades.

Kate Seifert was honored as the outstanding sophomore within the province. Individual awards went to several others. Sara Powell was given the Amy Burnham Onken Award for chapter representation. Nancy Williams was honored as Outstanding Junior. Linda Perry received the chapter service award.

The chapter sponsors a Korean orphan and this year distributed Thanksgiving food baskets as well as participated in the blood drive, WFCI Cancer Marathon and did volunteer work at Gateway Learning Center. Members took trips to Florida for the national convention and to Indiana University for a workshop.

Pledges celebrate "Arrow Week"

With the traditional slave auction, the 1975 Pi Beta Phi pledge class began raising money. The girls also used a "Dream Boy" contest, donut sales, a ticket raffle, and bonquets. With the money they sponsored a chapter outing at a cabin in Brown County on April 24th. As in previous years, the Pi Phi pledges decorated the Christmas tree and surprised the actives, and at the Christmas spread the youngest pledge dressed as Santa to distribute gifts. The pledges also performed several skits at Cookie Shines.

At the start of "Arrow Week," held in order to celebrate and prepare the pledges for initiation, the girls went on a scavenger hunt and Joni Hull received the Outstanding Pledge Award. Other events during the week included trips to Aristo's and Forrell's.

Zetas contribute to community

1975-76 was a very successful year for the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. The members organized a Tramp-a-thon with Phi Delta Theta fraternity to aid the National Association for Retarded Citizens. They contributed to the Franklin community by Christmas caroling and sending valentines to homes throughout Franklin. Their State Day was held in Nashville, Tennessee on April 3, at which they received the Service Award in their district.

Pledges receive service award

The members pledged this year proved to be assets to Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority and to the Franklin community. The girls went Trick-or-Treating for the National Association for Retarded Citizens, and sent Christmas cards and Easter eggs to Gateway Learning Center. For the third straight year the Franklin chapter of ZTA was honored for their service project efforts. Pledges made money through bake sales and raffles, and sponsored a cook-out and games at a pledge's house as their pledge function.

Chi's help with FC productions

On an individual basis as well as collectively, Franklin Lambda Chi's participated in service projects around the area. Many gave blood and collected empty cigarette packages to be donated to an organization which buys time on breathing machines for an injured child. Johnson County welfare children were given a party by the fraternity, and members helped with the annual IFC Christmas party at Gateway Learning Center. Besides winning the college bowl this year, Lambda Chi's made dramatic contributions of acting, crew work, and directing in campus productions and the Follies. Member Dan Calkins was elected president of IFC also. Within the house, the brothers reinstated quiet hours and a once-a-week formal dinner meeting.

In addition to activities on or near the campus, the Franklin Chi's traveled to Butler and Valparaiso Universities to assist in those initiations. All officers attended a workshop at National Headquarters in Indianapolis earlier this year. Delegates were sent to a conclave meeting (similar to State Day) at Butler University, and another delegate will be chosen to go to North Carolina for a fraternity congress meeting next summer.

LCA pledges have highest GPA

Joining the Lambda Chi Alpha tradition of holding initiation during first semester each year, the fraternity's 1975 pledge class also had the highest grade point average among the fraternity pledge classes on campus. Among initiates this fall was Father Mazzola of St. Rose Catholic Church in Lima, who counsels at Franklin once a week.

This year the annual Lambda Chi Alpha White Rose Formal was funded by the combination of pledge class money and an allotment from the social funds of the chapter. The dance was held April 16 at the Ramada Inn in Greenwood.

Phi Delts host bi-province day

Besides participating in a trampaline marathon with the ZTA sorority for the National Association for Retarded Citizens, Phi Delta Theta fraternity members also volunteered for President Ford's campaign. At the college they painted the football bleachers, and worked for Student Admission Corps and the Alumni Telethon. Several Phi Delts also served as pallbearers for Alumnus Roger P. Branigin's funeral.

This year the Franklin College Phi Delts hosted their annual Bi-Province (similar to State Day) for the Kappa Province North and South. When the Grizzlies went to Kansas City for the NAIA finals, fraternity members who followed stayed at the Phi Delt house at the University of Kansas. Tim Messer made the all-Phi Delt National Football team and Mark Montgomery received an honorable mention. Little Sisters of the Sword were taken to Brawn County and the 500 race track by the brothers, and offered their help when the house cook was gone this year.

Pledges purchase new furniture

The 1975-76 Phi Delta Theta pledge class raised money this year by painting and doing yard work, and through raffles of beverages and a television. They purchased new living room furniture for the house and put on the annual pledge dance using the theme, "Phi's on the Farm." The brothers dressed as farmers and the house was decorated like a barn. Pledges were put through the traditional "mail box run," in which actives bet on races to the corner of the main building.

This year Terry Vick was voted Outstanding Pledge.

SAEs take honors at state day

The men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon held an in-house retreat this year to discuss the Little Sister program and the fraternity goals in general. This year they also worked toward an improved image of the chapter, and repainted the halls and several rooms in the house.

Three members went to the state convention in Terre Haute, and Jerry Van Lieu was sent to Denver for the national convention. A Sigma Alpha Epsilon mini-leadership school at Oxford, Ohio was also attended by five members.

In the Muscular Dystrophy drive, the Franklin chapter of SAE rated 15th nationwide and fourth within the state. The fraternity brothers caroled this winter at the Masonic Home and joined in the Gateway Learning Center Christmas party, as well as participated in a service project with the Boy's Club. They also sponsored a foster child in the Appalachian Mountains.

As a group, the Indiana Alpha chapter took championships in football and basketball at their State Day at DePauw. Jeff Lombard made the All-American SAE football team and several others received honorable mentions. Terry Nash was awarded the Besser Lindsay Award, for athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

Pledges sponsor two functions

Undertaking the project of cleaning up a building site as well as holding several raffles, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledge class raised enough money for two chapter functions this year. The annual pledge dance used a comic strip theme, and a pig roast and camp-out was sponsored by the new initiates at a farm in Carmel. The pledge class traveled to the University of Kentucky for their walk-out. The outstanding pledge award was presented to Gary Fisher.

May sing: a time for talent

May Sing is traditionally a culmination of many hours practicing, putting themes together, playing musical instruments and singing or bellowing whichever the case may be. There were two categories this year, novelty and traditional. The independent women and the Phi Delta Theta fraternity entered the traditional division. The women chose a bicentennial theme and sang selections about American history. The Phi Deltas sang fraternity songs. Delta Delta Delta had a bicentennial theme and sang historical American songs. Delta Zeta's theme was "Dancing Through the Years." Pi Beta Phi had a women's liberation theme. Zeta Tau Alpha had a bicentennial comedy theme. Sigma Alpha Epsilon did several country and western songs.

The independent women won the traditional category and Pi Beta Phi won the novelty category. Bill Smith of Phi Delta Theta was awarded Best Greek Man and Diana Cross of Delta Zeta received the award for Best Greek Woman.

Recounting the past, looking to the future

On May 23, 1976 the long hard climb began for 113 seniors at Franklin College.

Upon their graduation, four years have prepared them for the road which lies ahead.

They must now place their footsteps among the many who have trod the same road before them.

Many will go to graduate school, some to law school and med school. Others will take positions and will diligently work to the top. Yet others will either travel, rest, or get married.

Whatever road each takes, the path is long. But each have worked and prepared for "graduation day" and are ready to meet the challenges, hardships and happiness that the road will bring them.

They will travel the footsteps well, recounting the past and looking to the future—yesterday, today and tomorrow.

President-Elect Edwin A. Penn and commencement speaker, Dr. Laura Bornholdt, Senior Program Officer, Education Division of the Lilly Endowment, Inc. march in the procession.

This limited edition of the Liberty Bell is used to herald academic distinction. One ring is for cum laude, two for magna cum laude, three for summa cum laude, and four for honorary degrees.

Yesterday, today and tomorrow

Graduating seniors begin their last student walk through the campus.

Ellen Somers, graduates summa cum laude.

Robert Coward, Commencement Marshal, places the hood on Dr. I. George Blake, honorary degree recipient.

Boston, June 29, 1776.

In Committee of Correspondence, Inspection & Safety.

WHEREAS the keeping up a correspondence with our inveterate enemies, particularly the fleet and army now employed against the United Colonies, or those open and avowed opposers of our rights, who have forfeited all title to our confidence and protection, by seeking refuge under the power which has been long engaged in the destruction of this country, is in direct violation of the laws of this colony, and may be attended with the most fatal consequences to the public safety.

All persons, therefore, who may arrive in this town from Halifax, or any port or place in possession of, or infested by our said enemies, are hereby directed to leave their names with all the letters they may bring with them, and a memorandum of their places of abode, with some member of this committee, or at the office of Nathaniel Barber, Esq; as soon as may be after their arrival here. A non-compliance with this requisition will be deemed evidence of an unfriendly design in such person or persons against the interest of the United Colonies, and they will be proceeded against accordingly.

By order of the committee.
